Notes for Applicants:

1. Applicants are invited to visit the Anglican Independent Communion (UK) website at www.aicuk.org, before submitting their application. A completed application implies that the applicant has read and accepts the Canons of the Communion.
2. The Anglican Independent Communion (UK) does not ordain into Holy Orders women or practising male homosexuals under any circumstances. Appropriately qualified women may be admitted to the Order of Deaconesses.
3. Applications which are incomplete or which are not sent to both the Presiding Bishop and the Chancellor above will not be processed.
4. Any application which is found to contain any false statement by the applicant will be automatically rejected.
5. Application for ordination is a serious matter, and should only be undertaken after much prayer and reflection. You are undertaking a journey which will not be easy, and during which God will impose many trials upon you spiritually and emotionally. We pray for you at this time.
